JEFFERSON BIBLE

REPLICA OF REMARKABLE
BOOK IS IN PENDLETON.

Is a Compilation of All Those Scriptural Passages Which Appeared Most to Thomas Jefferson, With Annotations in His Handwriting—The Text Is in Five Languages, With Marginal Notes by the Compiler—Is a rare and valuable curiosity.

A neat volume, bound in red morocco, is on the shelf at Nolf's book store in this city and is known as the "Jefferson Bible." The book is from the government printing office at Washington, D. C., and came to Frederick Nolf as a gift from Congressman Williamson. The books are not for sale and are obtained only through the members of congress or other high federal officials.

The book was compiled by President Thomas Jefferson and contains favorite scriptural texts cut from English, German, French, Greek and Latin bibles. The book is reproduced in its entirety, even down to the age-blackened fly-leaves of the original.

Throughout the volume are autograph notes by the author and in bold, uneven letters on the first page is printed: "The Life and Morals of Jesus of Nazareth." The original is the property of the United States national museum, which obtained it by purchase in 1895.

The author in a letter to John Adams, written October 12, 1813, thus explains the volume:

"We must reduce our volume to the simple Evangelists, select, even from them, the very words only of Jesus, paring off the amphibolisms into which they have been led, by forgetting often, or not understanding, what had fallen from him, by giving their own misconceptions as his dicta, and expressing unintelligibly for others what they had not understood themselves. There will be found remaining the most sublime and benevolent code of morals which has ever been offered to man."

It is one of the handsomest examples of the work of the government printing office, and has an introduction by Dr. Cyrus Adler, librarian of the Smithsonian Institute. The edition is of 3000, of which 3000 are for the use of the senate and 6000 for the use of the house.

BISHOP POTTER'S PLAY.

Subway Tavern Scheme to Be Followed by a Theatrical Performance.

The play is a drama entitled "The King's Highway," written by William Gill, and will be produced next Friday at the New York theater.

Bishop Potter is the president of the Actors' Alliance, and when the officers of the order recently suggested producing a play he immediately fell in with the scheme and gave it his hearty approval.

The Rev. Walter E. Bentley, once an actor, but now national secretary and organizer of the alliance, and Harry Leighton, actor, stage manager and alliance enthusiast, have the matter in charge.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
